Bauxite Offtake Agreement Signed

Australian Bauxite Limited (ABx) advises that it has finalised and executed an offtake agreement with Rawmin Mining and Industries Pvt Ltd of Mumbai, India (Rawmin) (Offtake Agreement).

The comprehensive Offtake Agreement covers all bauxite produced by ABx out of Tasmania and runs five years.

The Offtake Agreement provides for Rawmin to purchase 4.7 million wet metric tonnes (WMT) of Bauxite commencing with 200,000 WMT to 31 March 2016 and ramping up to 1.5 million WMT per annum from 1 April 2018.

Sale is on a Free on Board Stowed and Trimmed (FOBST) basis, with Rawmin responsible for shipping, based on best-price tenders secured by either party.

The Offtake Agreement provides for payments linked to the CBIX Price, which is an index of the market price prevailing at the time of sale.

Bauxite in excess of the contracted quantities must be first offered to Rawmin.

The Offtake Agreement further provides for blended shipments of ABx and Rawmin bauxites on a profit share basis for any blending profits achieved.

The Offtake Agreement includes terms and conditions and mutual warranties and indemnities customary to this type of agreement.

Rawmin's associate companies own bauxite mines located in Jamnagar and Porbandar Districts of Gujarat State in India. In addition, a greenfield bauxite mining project is being set up in the Maharashtra state.

Rawmin will provide assistance with sufficient working capital finance, production and best practice quality control. Bauxite will be sold at market prices into China, India, the Middle East and Australia.

Mahesh Thanki, Managing Director of Rawmin said, "Rawmin is pleased to have concluded this offtake agreement with Australian Bauxite and we are sure that the years ahead will be productive and profitable to all concerned."

ABx CEO, Ian Levy said, "The synergies between Australian Bauxite and Rawmin arise from the compatibility of our type of bauxite and will be of considerable benefit to our shareholders. The Offtake Agreement provides us with certainty and enables us to confidently expand our operations.

"Our first shipment is now at port side and ready for loading."
